Student Acknowledgement

- I pledge on my honor that I will neither give nor receive any unauthorized assistance on my assignments/ examinations.
- I understand that plagiarism of any kind could result in a failing grade and/or dismissal from the program.
- understand I must adhere to all the policies contained within the HTC handbook located on the haney.edu website.
- I hereby give permission for HTC to release my record information for education, accreditation, and/or employment purposes.
- I understand the parking lot and all other areas of the campus are Bay District School's property. Students should drive with caution when on or near campus, obeying all speed limits and other traffic laws. The speed limit in the parking lot is five (5) miles per hour.
- I understand students are to park in the designated parking areas only. Students who park in unauthorized areas may lose the privilege of parking on campus and/or the vehicle may be towed.
- I understand Students may not loiter around vehicles in the parking area(s). Students shall not occupy vehicles during class, between classes, or before or after school, except as they arrive and leave for the school day.
- I understand Students may not smoke in their vehicles while on school property.
- Vehicles on campus are subject to search by authorized personnel, including law enforcement canine units on routine campus visits, upon reasonable suspicion that the vehicle may contain illegal substances or weapons (i.e., alcohol, drugs, and/or weapons of any kind).
- I understand students must have a parking permit/decal. This will be used to help locate vehicle owners in case the need arises. This also will be helpful if a vehicle has the lights on, is leaking fluid, or is involved in a minor accident with another vehicle when the owner is not present.
- I understand the parking decal is to be displayed on/in the vehicle while parked on campus.

I have read the above statements and agree to comply with all HTC policies.
